

GOD IS ALWAYS READY FOR FELLOWSHIP

"And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth"

(Joshua 1:5)

Most of the time I have realized that, we are not really ready to have fellowship with God. This is because of how we view God and how we must prepare ourselves to meet with God. You see, in the Old Testament we read about very simple ways of chatting with God and also very complicated ways of God chatting with us. For instance, When God came to the Garden to fellowship with man, He just called Adam by His name. That alone showed a high class of intimacy. God was very personal with Adam. He spoke and called Him: " And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? ¹⁰And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." (Gen. 3:8-10)

The interesting thing about God and Adam and Eve is that they knew the voice of God. That was the only voice they were used to. It was indeed, a very intimate relationship. It was God who came to Adam. God was not in the Garden because that was not his domain. God's headquarters was in heaven.

"The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all." (Ps 103:19)

"The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men." (Ps 115:16)

So, I see man and God as cool friends who engaged in a cool chat in a cool day because God came down in the cool of the day. So, we should make our chat with God cool. In another instance, God spoke with Moses Face to face as a man speaks to his friend.

"Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend..." (Exo. 33:11)

In other instances, God spoke to people with thunder and lightning. This is the horrifying picture we carry in our minds when we go to pray.

"And as the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him in thunder." (Ex. 19:19)

The scene of thunder and lightning was few as compared with friendly personal encounters with man. It has always been friendly and cordial. Talk to God today and He will talk to you. He is a spirit. However, and wherever, He will flow. He is always ready: on your bed, as you walk, as you drive or shower or in your office while busy with workers you can fellowship with God.

PRAYER & CONFESSION

I can talk to God easily and cordially from today.
